PROGRAM OF STUDY

Broward College offers the following degree programs within eight career pathways:

- Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree, which is the first two years of a Bachelor's degree designed to transfer to a university. Applicants that were awarded the equivalent to a Bachelor's degree from another institution are not eligible to apply for the A.A. degree.
- Associate of Science (A.S.) degree, which is a two-year program to prepare the graduate with employment skills. It is important to note that A.S. degrees for Health Science are limited access programs. International students will not receive an I-20 for these programs without proof of acceptance from the Health Sciences Department.
- Bachelor's degree programs. These are limited access programs requiring an Associate's degree or 60 college level credits prior to applying. International students will not receive an I-20 for these programs without proof of acceptance to the Bachelor's degree of choice.

Write which degree program and major you want to study: _____

Non-native English speakers applying for a degree program must provide proof of English proficiency. For a list of acceptable forms of proof, visit our website.

If you do not have proof of English proficiency, you can apply for the Language Training program first. Students applying for the Language Training program need an intermediate level of English proficiency for placement in the English for Academic Purposes (EAP) classes. Based on this information, if English is not your primary language and you do not have proof of English proficiency, do you wish to enroll in the Language Training program? Write yes or no: _____

CONFIDENTIAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Give this affidavit to your financial sponsor to complete. The sponsor must submit the signed affidavit and proof of financial support which includes a bank letter (letter written by a bank representative), bank statement (monthly statement from the bank that is received in the mail or online), loan approval or scholarship approval showing the funds available to cover the estimated annual cost of education which is tuition (24 credits), lab fees and living expenses.

Write the source of funds (for example: parents, other relative, private loan from the U.S. or abroad, government scholarship or loan, family friend or self): _____

Affidavit of Financial Sponsorship

I, (write the full legal name of the sponsor) _____ residing at (write the sponsor's address, city, state, country) _____ certify that I will be the financial sponsor for (write the applicant's name) _____.

I will be responsible for all the financial support for the duration of his/her studies at Broward College.

I also understand that Broward College requires that students submit documented proof of financial support for the estimated annual cost of education which is tuition (24 credits), lab fees and living expenses as following:

- US$22,500 for an Associate's degree or the Language Training program
- US$27,500 for a Bachelor's degree
- US$50,000 for the Professional Pilot program
- An additional US$7,000 per dependent (child/spouse) of the applicant is required

I understand that if I choose to send the tuition payment through a wire money transfer or check payable to Broward College, I'm only authorized to send up to the limit of tuition per term. Any additional funds received by the college will be applied toward future terms and not refunded to the student.
