ARTICLE I: STUDENT CONDUCT REVIEW PROCEDURES

1. Any member of the Broward College (“College”) community may file a complaint against any student or student organization for misconduct. Students are encouraged to submit complaints in writing, directed to the dean of students where the violation was allegedly committed. Complaints should be submitted within 5 business days after the incident. Complaints that are not in writing and/or submitted after the preferred timeline will also be considered and investigated as needed. Both the complainant and the referred student will receive a written copy of the student code of conduct and other College policies and procedures applicable to the alleged violation. This complaint procedure serves as the general process followed in most situations to adjudicate and sanction student conduct. In cases where reasonable deviations to these procedures occur, such deviations will not invalidate the process or outcomes.

2. When the dean of students becomes aware of the complaint, she/he may do one or more of the following:

   a. Immediate Sanction: If a student or student organization poses a threat to any person, is unruly, disruptive, uncontrollable, damages or threatens to damage any property, or some other serious condition exists, the dean of students, with the approval of the Campus President or the chair of the Behavioral Intervention Team, may immediately suspend the student or organization from class(es) or other activities at the College. If there is an immediate threat to campus or classroom environment, this suspension may occur prior to due process being extended to the student or student organization. If an immediate sanction is imposed, reasonable attempts should be made to accelerate the formal disciplinary process.

   b. Support for Complainant: The College will take immediate interim steps to protect the complainant and other impacted members of the College community pending the final outcome of the investigation. Interim measures are available to address safety as well as any hostile education environment resulting from the alleged misconduct. These measures include, but are not limited to, changing an employee’s or student’s work schedule, altering the complainant’s or referred student’s course schedule or campus, allowing the withdrawal or retake of classes without penalty, academic support such as tutoring, student affairs support such as assistance with financial aid issues, visa and immigration assistance, and the issuance of no-contact orders, assisting the student in notifying law-enforcement, recommending appropriate community support, recommending options for counseling, and assisting the student with initiating a College complaint and investigation regarding the allegation in accordance with applicable College policies. Interim measures are temporary and may be removed, enhanced, or otherwise altered upon final determination of the issue.

   c. Trespass: In accordance with College Policy 6Hx2-2.02 – At the direction of the dean of students, students may be escorted off College property if their continued presence is considered a threat to the safety of persons or property. With the approval of the Campus President, trespass may occur prior to due process being extended to the student or student organization.
d. Review by dean of students or designee: Upon receiving a complaint, an initial inquiry will be conducted consisting of reviewing the complaint and other available information to determine if an investigation is warranted. If an investigation is initiated, appropriate steps will be taken to ensure that the investigation is adequate, reliable, and impartial, and includes the opportunity for all parties to present witnesses and evidence. Persons called to present information as part of an investigation will be notified of the allegations and possible violations of the Student Code of Conduct, and will receive a copy of the Student Code of Conduct Policy and Procedure. At the conclusion of the investigation, an investigative report will be prepared outlining: 1) a description of the specific behavior that occurred that allegedly violated the Code of Conduct; 2) the specific sections of the Code of Conduct that the student or student organization is alleged to have violated; 3) a summary of all statements, interviews, evidence, etc.; 4) a finding as to whether it is more likely than not (preponderance of the evidence standard) that the student or student organization violated the Code of Conduct; 5) sanctions imposed or recommended (depending on jurisdiction); and 6) if applicable, steps taken to stop the offending conduct, prevent recurrence, and mitigate risks to the community. During the investigation, the complainant and the referred student or student organization have the privilege of being assisted, at their own expense, by one adviser of their own choice. The adviser may be an attorney. The complainant and/or the referred student are responsible for presenting their own case. Advisers are not permitted to speak or to participate directly or indirectly in any part of the investigation. Either the complainant or the referred student may question the impartiality of the review with the Campus President, and up through the chain of command as needed depending on the nature of the concern about impartiality. The College will preserve all evidence that may be of value in conducting an investigation and determining culpability and sanctions imposed upon the referred students, and will share such evidence with appropriate law enforcement entities as required by law.

e. Authority of Student Dean and Student Conduct Committee: Other than in instances where a possible outcome of a disciplinary hearing is suspension or expulsion, the dean of students will review evidence, meet with the student or student organization, meet with witnesses, and impose sanctions as outlined in Article III of this procedure within 15 business days after receiving the complaint. A review by the dean of students may occur prior to sanctions being imposed or after sanctions are imposed and/or a notice of trespass is issued in accordance with items I.2.a, b, & c above.

f. Review by Student Conduct Committee: In cases involving possible suspension or expulsion, the matter will be heard by the Student Conduct Committee in accordance with the guidelines set forth in Article II of this procedure. In cases where the matter is referred to the Student Conduct Committee, the dean of students or designees will still conduct the inquiry and or investigation described above.

g. Disruptive Students: In instances where student behavior manifests symptoms of possible psychological/psychiatric issues, the Campus Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) chair or the dean of students may recommend to the Campus President that a student complete a psychiatric and/or psychological evaluation based on the student’s behavior. The Campus President, in consultation with the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management shall determine if an evaluation is warranted. The results of the psychiatric and/or psychological evaluation will assist the College in determining the student’s ability to continue participation in educational programming at the College in accordance with the provisions of this procedure. Students deemed to pose an immediate threat to themselves or others will be subject to immediate sanction and/or may be trespassed from all college locations in accordance with item A and B above pending the outcome of full due process rights afforded by this procedure.

3. Students are responsible for their conduct. Students may not invoke their official or informal complaint or grievances against other persons or departments as part of their defense against allegations of having violated the Student Code of Conduct. Even if legitimate, a grievance against a member of the college community is not sufficient grounds, nor a defense for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

ARTICLE II: STUDENT CONDUCT COMMITTEE HEARING PROCEDURES

1. The Student Conduct Committee is a sub-committee of the Academic Standards Committee as codified in College Policy 6Hx2-5.28 – Academic Standards Committee. The Student Conduct Committee consists of members chosen from the Academic Standards Committee. Members of the Student Conduct Committee must not be directly associated with the case. The Chair of the Academic Standards Committee will serve as the Hearing Officer of the Student Conduct Committee. If the Chair of the Academic Standards Committee is unable to preside, the dean of students shall designate a Chair. In cases involving sexual misconduct, or other matters where the privacy of student complainants is an issue, the Hearing Officer, in consultation with the dean of students, may exclude students from hearing the case. The Hearing Officer will only vote if there is a tie. The complainant or the referred student may question the impartiality of members of the Student Conduct Committee to the dean of students, or if the question is about the dean of students, to the appropriate campus president, and up through the chain of command as needed depending on the nature of the concern regarding impartiality.

2. The dean of students will forward pertinent paperwork to the Hearing Officer who will present the complaint and the hearing procedures to the referred student or student organization, and the complainant, in writing. A time will be set for a hearing within 15 business days of the initial complaint.

3. In cases involving more than one referred student, the Hearing Officer of the Student Conduct Committee, at her/his discretion may permit separate hearings.

4. The complainant and the referred student or student organization have the privilege of being assisted, at their own expense, by one adviser of their own choice. The adviser may be an attorney. The complainant and/or the referred student are responsible for presenting their own case. Advisers are not permitted to speak or to participate directly or indirectly in any hearing before a Student Conduct Committee.
5. The complainant, the referred student or student organization, and the Student Conduct Committee will have the privilege of presenting witnesses, subject to inquiry or questioning by the Student Conduct Committee. In cases of alleged sexual misconduct, the referred student or student organization is not permitted to introduce evidence or ask questions regarding the complainant’s prior sexual conduct with anyone other than the referred student. It should be noted that evidence of a prior consensual relationship between the parties does not imply consent. Additionally, the hearing officer may prohibit the referred student from directly interacting with or cross examining the complainant in cases of alleged sexual misconduct or in other instances where it is deemed to not be appropriate.

6. The complainant and referred student or student organization must notify the Hearing Officer of any witnesses and/or items for review they wish to present, at least 3 business days prior to the hearing. All parties shall have equal and timely access to information and evidence.

7. At the discretion of the Hearing Officer, pertinent records, exhibits, and written statements may be accepted for consideration by the Student Conduct Committee.

8. All procedural questions are subject to the final decision of the Hearing Officer.

9. All communication at a student conduct hearing shall be directed through the Hearing Officer.

10. The College will create an audio recording of all hearings before a Student Conduct Committee. Participants and guests are not permitted to record the hearing. The record will be the property of the College. In the case of an appeal, the complainant and referred students or student organizations, and appropriate college administrators, have a right to review the recording by scheduling an appointment with the appropriate dean of students. The recording may be listened to but may not leave the office of the dean of students and may not be copied in any form by any person.

11. After the hearing, the Student Conduct Committee will determine by majority vote if the student or student organization has violated specific sections of the Student Code of Conduct.

12. The Student Conduct Committee’s determination will be made on the basis of whether it is more likely than not that the referred student or student organization violated the Student Code of Conduct, commonly referred to as a preponderance of the evidence standard.

13. The Student Conduct Committee, after hearing the case in the manner outlined in this Procedure, will recommend sanction(s) within 5 business days to the dean of students. The dean of students may accept, reject, or modify the recommendation offered by the Student Conduct Committee and will simultaneously communicate the disposition of the matter to the complainant and the referred student or student organization in writing within 10 business days after receiving the recommendation of the Student Conduct Committee.
14. The Hearing Officer and committee members shall keep confidential the recommendations of the committee and only the sanction imposed by the dean of students will be communicated to the student or student organization.

ARTICLE III: SANCTIONS

1. The dean of students or the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management (per Section IV of this Procedure) may impose one or more of the following sanctions based on the severity of the incident. The sanctions listed below do not reflect a progressive process and a student may immediately receive a more severe sanction depending on the nature of the violation.

The following Level 1 Sanctions (may be imposed by the dean of students):

a. Warning – A notice in writing to the student that they have violated institutional regulations indicating the potential consequences of future violations.

ARTICLE IV: APPEALS

1. A referred student, student organization, or complainant may appeal to the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management the sanctions imposed by the dean of students. Such appeals must be in writing and must be delivered to the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management within 5 business days of the receipt of sanctions from the dean of students.

2. Sanctions imposed by the dean of students go into effect immediately unless a student or student organization appeals the decision. In such cases, the dean of students in consultation with the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management will decide if sanctions will be enforced immediately or pending the outcome of an appeal process.

3. In considering the appeal, the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management will limit her/his review to a determination of whether the student or student organization received a fair hearing in accordance with established policies and procedures. A student who has been sanctioned may only appeal on the following grounds:

a. A substantial procedural error occurred that rendered the process or the outcome fundamentally unfair.

b. New substantive evidence, impossible for the dean of students or the Student Conduct Committee to have heard at the time of the hearing, has been discovered and a failure to review such evidence would be fundamentally unfair.

c. The finding and/or the sanction was fundamentally unfair or inappropriate.

4. The Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management will generally limit her/his review to the written appeal and the record of the hearing. In exceptional circumstances, the Vice President for Student Affairs Affairs and Enrollment Management may, at her/his discretion, meet with student(s) directly to review evidence, meet with witnesses and the accused student(s) or student organization.

5. After considering the appeal, the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management may:

   a. Find that there are no grounds to consider the appeal.

   b. Refer the matter back to the dean of students for further review based on specific issues, with a designated time-frame for reconsideration indicated.

   c. Alter the findings or the sanctions imposed by the dean of students. Sanctions imposed during the appeal process may be less severe, or in unusual circumstances, more severe than those originally imposed.

6. The Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management shall simultaneously communicate the final disposition of the matter to the complainant and referred student or student organization in writing within 10 business days after receiving the appeal. The decision of the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management shall be final.

ARTICLE V: COMMUNICATION

1. In cases where there is no appeal to the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management within the specified time period in accordance with this procedure, the dean of students shall notify appropriate members of the college community regarding the sanction. In instances where an appeal is submitted and the matter is adjudicated by the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management, he/she will notify appropriate College personnel of the decision. Both the complainant and referred student or student organization will receive simultaneous written notice of the outcome of the complaint including the rationale for the decision. Communication indicating the outcome of a disciplinary proceeding shall include a summary of the alleged behavior, the specific parts of the Code of Conduct allegedly violated, a finding as to whether or not the student or student organization was found to have violated the Code of Conduct including the rationale for the decision, the sanctions imposed, and opportunities for appeal.
