GENERAL STATEMENT

It is the responsibility of the student to /drop her or his course registration up through the published deadline for 100% refund. Courses dropped prior to this deadline will not appear on the academic record. After the published deadline for 100% refund, a student may withdraw up to the published last day to withdraw. Withdrawn courses remain on the student's transcript with a status of withdrawal, indicating that the student registered for the course but withdrew. After the deadline for withdrawal, grades are earned and recorded.

Broward College may approve a petition for withdrawal when non-academic, extenuating circumstances prohibit a student's ability to officially withdraw.

THE POLICY and THE STUDENT

A student can be administratively withdrawn or dropped by the College for non-academic extenuating circumstances. A withdrawal or drop for any reason could impact a student's financial aid award.

Pursuant to Florida Statute 1004.07, a student who is called to, or enlists in, active military service in the United States armed forces shall be permitted the option of either completing her or his course(s) at a later date (receiving an "I" indicating an Incomplete and be required to complete the coursework within the designated period), or canceling her or his course schedule with a 100% refund.

A student will be permitted a maximum of two (2) withdrawals per course. After the second attempt, the student will not be permitted to withdraw and will receive a grade for that course

THE POLICY and THE FACULTY AND STAFF.

A faculty member may request that a student be administratively withdrawn or dropped by the College for non-academic extenuating circumstances. A student can be administratively withdrawn or dropped by the College for non-academic extenuating circumstances. A withdrawal or drop for any reason could impact a student's financial aid award.
